On the Riverbank

Riverbankers

Ev'ry living creature needs a place to call home,
A place where you feel safe; that you hold dear,
Somewhere to return to when you're far away,
We think we've found the perfect spot right here!

The breezes rustle through the reeds,
The river gently flows,
Past meadows, mills and tangled weeds,
To where the weeping willow grows...

Right here on the Riverbank,
Is where we choose to spend our days,
And here on the Riverbank,
Is just the place to dream and laze,
This is where we'll stay!

Wild Wooders

We live in the Wild Wood. We like it here,
The darkness suits us very well you see,
And from our base in the Wild Wood we're hatching a plan,
To expand our land and grab new territ'ry!

Weasels, Stoats and Ferrets too,
Are poised to spoil the plot,
The River has it's merits too,
We're not content with what we've got!

Someday this will all be ours,
The greatest empire ever known,
From the Woods to the Riverbank,
This Rustic Reich we plan to own,
Will last a thousand years!

Rat

I live on the Riverbank,
Where the pace of life is slow,
I am quite contented here,
It's the only place I know...

But later in the summertime,
I see travellers heading South,
Perhaps next year I'll follow them,
And leave the Riverbank,
But for now this is where I belong...

Riverbankers

Ev'ry living creature needs a place to call home,
A place where you feel safe; that you hold dear,
Somewhere to return to when you're far away,
We think we've found the perfect spot right here!

Mole Oh My! Oh My! Fresh air! This is fine! This is better than whitewashing!

All This is paradise!

Wild Wooders To rule the country is our quest!

Riverbankers Right here on the Riverbank,
Wild Wooders Right here in the Wild Wood,
Riverbankers Life is easy, life is fine,
And here on the Riverbank,
Wild Wooders And here in the Wild Wood,
Riverbankers Some say we're running out of time,
Wild Wooders Darkness suits us well...
Riverbankers But this is where we'll stay...
Wild Wooders It won't be long...

Wild Wooders We will take it! We will seize it!
We will conquer the Riverbank!

Riverbankers This is the place that we love,
And we'll never leave it!

Wild Wooders This land is our destiny!
Riverbankers This is the place that we love!

Life on the Open Road

Toad, Rat, Mole

Rolling down the dusty highway,
A-rolling down the Rolling Downs,
Any way of yours is my way,
As long as we go out of town,
Every day the sun is rising,
On a brand new episode,
Here today and gone tomorrow,
That's the Life on the Open Road...

Passers by
Toad, Rat, Mole
Passers by

With ev'rything from kitchen sink to frying pan!
Could we maybe cadge a lift?
We're sorry, there's no room!

Toad, Rat, Mole

Cruising by the busy hedgerows,
Never see the same place twice,
Looking to the far horizon,

Every stop we make a brand new friend,
A brand new adventure lies around each bend,
We've all got the travelling bug,
And ev'ry time we stop...
It's only for a minute then we're off again!

Toad

This caravan is getting slower,
The snails and slugs are racing by,
What a tedious form of transport!
I must admit I'm getting bored....

Toad

You see, I'm SO bored I can't even be bothered to make my verses rhyme any more!

Toad

A caravan's enough for some folk ,
But not enough for Mister Toad,
I really am quite fed up now,
With the Life on the Open Road....

Toad

Poop! Poop!
Poop! Poop!
What a stunning means of locomotion!
What a glorious and stirring sight!
As powerful as the open ocean,

As graceful as a swan in flight!
Now that's the way to really travel,
How it's fenders gleamed and glowed!
Here today, next week tomorrow,
That's a Life on the Open Road...

Poop! Poop!
Poop! Poop!

Rat

A thunderbolt and Mister Toad!
Here today, next week tomorrow,
That's a Life on the Open Road...

Who's There?

- Wild Wooders Now you're deep in the dark Wild Wood,
You're very much on your own,
It's a lovely night in the dark Wild Wood,
But you really should have stayed at home!
- Now you're deep in the dark Wild Wood,
You'd better wear a good disguise!

Get out! While there's still time!

If I pretend it doesn't matter it will surely go away,
Get a grip! There is nothing here to fear!
Though the pattering is getting rather near,
And the sky is getting dim,
And the atmosphere is grim,
This place is unappealing and I have funny feeling,
That I am not alone!
- Wild Wooders You have strayed into a nightmare,
Wandered into your darkest hour!
Riverbankers are not welcome!
Foreign animals will disappear!
- Mole What's that?
Wild Wooders Just a rustle in the trees!
Mole Oh My!
Wild Wooders Branches swinging in the breeze!

Mole It's all inside my brain!

Mole Secret si...?

Weasel 3 Where are your papers, Mole?

Mole                    “Trespassers will be cooked and eaten”

Wild Wooders        Ha! Ha! Ha!

Chief Weasel         We have special places where we put animals like you...that don't belong here.

Where I Belong

Sea Rat

Can you hear the echoes,
Of a warm and distant land?
Sounds and scents from far away,
That lead you by the hand.

Golden days and azure bays,
The strumming of guitars,
Shady temples, olive woods,
The sky ablaze with stars...

This world is full of wonders,
And rats were made to roam,
Memories to be harvested,
And safely stored at home...
But where is home?

I have tried to settle down on a cosy little farm,
With all a rat could ever wish,
But soon the doubts began to gnaw,
So now I'm on the road once more,
Travelling free is where I belong...

Rat

(to FIELD MICE) What are you up to? It's not time to be thinking of winter quarters yet, by a long way!

...DIALOGUE...

Sea Rat

You're a rat! You're built for travel. Not to just laze around a Riverbank!

Sea Rat & Rat

This world is full of wonders,
And rats were made to roam,
Memories to be harvested,
And safely stored at home...
But where is home?

Rat

I love this little Riverbank,
My old familiar friend,
But adventure beckons round the bend!

And I will follow where it goes,
This chapter of my life will close,
The Riverbank is not where I belong...

Mole

Rat This world is full of wonders,
And rats were made to roam,
Memories to be harvested,
And safely stored at home...
But where is home?

I love this little Riverbank,
My old familiar friend,
But am I brave enough to leave?
Would that be smart or just naive?
Now I'm starting to believe...
(with a hint of sadness) This is the place where I belong...
This is the place where I belong...

CD Tr 12

Sad and Miserable Toad

- Prison Guard      You have such lovely big eyes!
A wide winning smile!
- Toad                Thank you, but I really have to go!
- Prison Guard      Give us a kiss!
Then you can pass!
- Toad                I have my reputation, sir, you know!
- Prison Guard      You're my little tubby scrubber!
The highlight of my week!
- Toad                Thank you, kind sir!
That's quite enough of your cheek!
- Prison Guard      What a lady!
- Chorus             Look at him go! Swaggering by!
With a brand new tale about which he can brag!
Swanning along without a care in the world!
And I'm quite enjoying dressing up in drag!
- Toad                Toad leaps in with both his feet where angels fear to tread!
Beware, Mister Toad,
For trouble is not far ahead!
- Chorus
- Toad                Well, that was easy enough! What a daring exploit! Now, I must remove myself from this neighbourhood as quickly as possible. This washerwoman seems to be a well known and popular character about these parts! Oh, look!
- Toad                Goodness me! A railway station!
Just the thing I need!
Typical Toad!
Escaping with style and with speed!
- (to STATION CLERK) A single ticket if you please,
And make sure it's first class!
Second class will surely do?
- Station Clerk
- Toad                What impudence! What brass!
- Toad                (to himself) Dash! My wallet! I must have left it in the cell!
(to the STATION CLERK) Look here! Just let me have that ticket,
And I'll send the cash tomorrow!
I'm well known in these parts!
- Station Clerk      I bet you are well known!
Bet you've tried this trick before!
Now please stand back from the window,
You are obstructing the other customers...

Chorus           The end of the road now,
For poor Mister Toad now,
He'll soon be discovered,
And dragged back to gaol,
Poor Toad is now in a hole!

Engine Driver    Can I help you, miss?

...DIALOGUE...

Engine Driver    Well, I'll tell you what I'll do – I'll give you a ride on my engine – I can't bear to see a good woman like yourself in distress. Hop up now!

Chorus           Can you believe it?
Just as soon as Toad is heading for disaster,
Toad            I always think of something clever!
Chorus          However fast his foe,
                  That wily Toad is just a little faster!
Toad            No competition whatsoever!

Chorus           Steam train rushing on down the track,
Just keep rolling on!
Don't look back behind you!
Or they may find you!

Engine Driver    That's very odd.
We are the last train,
Yet I'd swear we're being followed!

Toad             What?!

Engine Driver    Look!

Engine Driver    Prison warders, policeman waving guns!
And they are gaining on us fast!

Engine Driver    Is there something you haven't told me?

Chorus           Steam train rushing on down the track,
Just keep rolling on!
Don't look back behind you!
Or they may find you!

Toad             Oh Mister Driver! Save me now that I am forced into confession...
Pursuers        (shouting) Stop your train this very minute!
Toad             A washer woman isn't really my vocation or profession...
Pursuers        (shouting) You're harbouring a pris'ner in it!

Engine Driver    Is that right, what I just heard?
You're nothing but a low gaolbird?

- Toad Who are you?
Alright, I'll tell you...
- Toad (on his knees, sobbing) I am the well-knowned,
And popular Toad!
I've cunningly escaped from a dark dungeon cell,
If those fellows catch Toad up,
His future is sewed up,
So goodbye cruel world! Farewell!
- Engine Driver Now tell me the truth; what were you put in prison for?
- ...DIALOGUE...
- Toad (TOAD wails) No, please, kind sir...I beg you to have mercy on this most ill-treated of toads! (more wailing)
- Chorus The end of the track now,
The clock's turning back now,
He'll soon be discovered,
And dragged back to gaol,
For Toad is now stuck,
He's clean out of luck!
Poor Toad is now in a hole!
- Engine Driver ...But...I don't like to see an animal in distress and, what's more, I don't like being ordered about by policemen while I'm on my engine! So...
- ...DIALOGUE...
- Toad (better again) Hurrah! Thank you, Mr. Engine Driver!
- Chorus Can you believe it?
Just as soon as Toad is heading for disaster,
- Toad I always think of something clever!
- Chorus However fast his foe,
That wily Toad is just a little faster!
- Toad No competition whatsoever!
- Chorus Steam train rushing on down the track,
Just keep rolling on!
Don't look back behind you,
Or they may find you!
- Chorus A & (B) Shovel on the coal! (Shovel on the coal!)
Faster if you can! (Faster if you can!)
Won't this train go any quicker?
Go! Go! Go! Go!

The above stanza continues sotto voce under the following dialogue:

Engine Driver      It's no good, they're still gaining on us! (thinks) I have an idea and it's your only chance! There is a tunnel up ahead. Just before we reach the far end you must jump from the train and run into the woods before our pursuers get out of the tunnel. Now be ready to jump when I tell you!

Chorus              Get ready Mister Toad,
We know you're rather plump!
But make a leap of faith,
And so prepare yourself to jump!

Engine Driver      Now Jump!
Engine Driver & Chorus Jump! Jump! Now Jump!

CD Tr 14

Stoat Patrol

Stoats              (forlorn, to themselves) Now we're far from the dark Wild Wood,
We're very much on our own,
It was lovely back in the dark Wild Wood,
How we wish that we had stayed at home!

Stoat 1             Sshhh!

...DIALOGUE...

Ferret              See it doesn't! You snivelling Stoats...you're not worthy of the name Rodent...we've got our eyes on you lot...now, get back to work!

Stoats              Now we're far from the dark Wild Wood,
We're very much on our own,
It was lovely back in the dark Wild Wood,
How we wish that we had stayed at home!

CD Tr 16

Party Animals!

Weasel 1           As Weasels we used to get such a bad press,
Weasel 2           Perhaps it was the formal way we dressed?
Weasel 3           Our manner was so stiff and starchy,
All Weasels       (marching) And we never walked when we could march! (stop marching)

Weasel 4           We are now ‘lords of the manor’,
Weasel 5           And we’ve let ourselves go,
Weasel 6           We’ve let our standards drop, boy, does it show!
All Weasels       ‘Cos when we decide to rave,
                          We can really misbehave!

We are Party Animals!
We’re creatures of the night,
We’re practic’ly nocturnal,
At this shindig that’s eternal!
For we are the master race,
And we live at a faster pace,
Than all the other creatures great and small!
We sophisticated, arty weasels,
Are never short of party diesel!
Party Animals!

Weasel 1           Watch where you’re dancing!

Weasel 2           You watch where you’re dancing you little weasel!

Weasel 1           We’re all Weasels...

Weasel 2           Oh yeah...

Weasels & (Chorus) And we live it up by night, (Ooh, Party Animals!)
Then sleep it off by day, (Ooh, Party Animals!)
We’re rodent glitterati,
Whose profession is to party!
We can dance and sing all night, (Ooh, Party Animals!)
And chill out to the sight, (Ooh, Party Animals!)
Of sunbeams creeping through our great Toad Hall!
(Party Animals, Party, Party Animals!)
We’re quite unique, there’ll be no sequel,
In party terms we have no equal,
Party Animals!

Raise your glass to Mister Toad, (Ooh, Party Animals!)
And this gentleman’s abode! (Ooh, Party Animals!)
The weasel flag has risen!
Toad is languishing in prison!
For his fate was being prone, (Ooh, Party Animals!)

To stealing cars and now we own, (Ooh, Party Animals!)
The greatest venue on the riverbank!
(Party Animals, Party, Party Animals!)
And hell will have to freeze up,
Before we end this knees-up!
'Cos we're Party Animals!

Chief Weasel      Come on lads! Get those knees up! All together now...

Na na na na na naaaa! (Ooh, Party Animals!)
Na na na na na naaaa! (Ooh, Party Animals!)
Disaster nor disease'll,
Stop these hearty party weasels!
Na na na na na naaaa! (Ooh, Party Animals!)
Na na na na na naaaa! (Ooh, Party Animals!)
Intoxicated by our strength and power!
(Party Animals, Party, Party Animals!)
We're the greatest! None can top us!
Not a creature now could stop us!
Party Ani...

RAT, MOLE, BADGER and TOAD suddenly leap out of the basket!

Toad      Stop! You villains and prepare to meet your fate!
Look out! You nasty thieving vermin!
Here comes the conq'ring hero,
To claim back his estate!

CD Tr 18

Now We Can Share

Company      Ev'ry living creature needs a place to call home,
A place where you feel safe; that you hold dear,
Somewhere to return to when you're far away,
We know we've found the perfect spot right here!

No divide! Side by side!
Peace has pacified creation,
Now that's a cause for celebration!
This land belongs to (shout) US!

Now we can share,
In the whole of creation!
We can repair,
This broken animal nation!
And we have ourselves to thank,
For re-uniting Wood and Bank!
Now the country's in a better state,
Since we have learned to integrate,
All's fair!
Now we can share!

Company A & (B)

Now we can share, (We've found a new way to live)
In the whole of creation! (To last forever)
